

Criteria for The Gail Watt Annual Scholarship in Human Services

Sponsored by Flagstaff Family and Community Services and Flagstaff's Initiative to Relationship and Spousal Trauma (FIRST)

Scholarship

This is a $500 scholarship presented annually to one student in each of the three High Schools in Flagstaff County:
Daysland, Sedgewick and Forestburg.

Eligibility

Students must show an interest in work in Human Services(a professional who acts as an agent to assist and or empower individuals, groups, families and communities to prevent, alleviate or better cope with crisis, change and stress to enable them to function more effectively in all areas of life and living) or Community Development (seeks to empower individuals and groups of people by providing these groups with the skills they need to affect change in their own communities).

Students must be a resident of Flagstaff County for at least one full school year prior to application.

Students must present a successful admission to a Post-Secondary Institution to receive payment of scholarship.

Application

All applicants must include a completed application form and will be evaluated on the basis of essay submission.

Application deadline

Application forms and essay must be mailed to the FFCS/FIRST office at Box 450, Killam, AB T0B 2L0
no later than May 31st of the current school year